

APPLICATION FOR AN UNDIVIDED IN CHRIST INTERNSHIP

Undivided in Christ is a racial reconciliation ministry unique to Beaver County. Since 2018 a diverse group of Christians encompassing many church traditions and multi-races has been building relationships and laying the groundwork for shared ministries. We are excited to announce that we will be placing paid cross-cultural interns throughout the county. If you are interested in serving in this way, please complete this application and send it or address any questions to undivided@gmail.com.

The Undivided in Christ internships span a variety of church and cultural traditions, and vary in how they look.

Do you have a particular advertised internship in mind? Y/N

If so, what is that internship?

If not, remembering that we want applicants to serve in both a different church culture AND a different racial context, can you give us a brief description of yourself? Include information to help us get to know your church involvement to date and what kind of an internship would interest you.

Please supply the following information:

Gender:

Race:

Current Employment:

Age:

Your Availability (full time? Part time? Days? Evenings?):

Marital Status:

Please provide a basic testimony of your relationship with Jesus Christ.

Please initial each of these to demonstrate you agree and understand:

___ I have an active relationship with Jesus Christ.

___ I am active in a Beaver County church.

Church Name

In what ways are you currently serving? How have you served your local church in the past?

What kinds of gifts and abilities do you think you bring to ministry, and to a cross cultural internship?

___ I am willing to learn and take instruction.

___ I understand that I will maintain a strong core belief in essentials of the faith, like those articulated in the Apostles' Creed. I also understand that I will also both demonstrate flexibility on non-essentials, and expect host church flexibility as well.

____ In crossing culture and church, I understand that I am going to demonstrate the utmost respect for differences in approach and ways of thinking.

____ I understand that I hope to be bringing some ideas and face to face ministry to this new context

____ My lifestyle consistent with a Christian witness in my relationships and choices

____ I realize that I will be expected, during at least the duration of the internship, to attend worship and be visible in this new context. I will do my best to know not just the required ministry expectations, but also to get to know as many people in the church as possible.

____ I will do my best to fulfill the work required in this internship I am applying for. If I do not overtly identify a context above, I will await contact by Undivided in Christ leaders to assess my options.
